You Are The Man and I Am The Rabbit

BY MORMEI ZANKE

on the moon. Two shapes in the same sphere you're over there and I'm here on an island in the pacific thinking about your eyes your mouth, your expression in a different night than mine.

Now I have to turn my head just to see you at an angle look what distance can do your skies and my skies don't look the same and I forgot to tell you
we're revolving apart.
